

6G WIRELESS SUMMIT

Levi • Lapland • Finland
24 - 26 March 2019

CALL FOR PATRONS

WWW.6GSUMMIT.COM

6G Flagship will organize this annual event first time in Finnish Lapland at the premier ski resort in Northern Europe. Meanwhile 5G standardization is finalizing, recent advances in machine learning infused with network edge intelligence is driving a paradigm shift towards truly intelligent societies. Enabling the vision requires addressing a myriad of theoretical and practical challenges. The goal of the 1st 6G Wireless Summit is to present and discuss the latest insights and innovations from industry and academia on 5G and beyond paving the road for the coming of 6G.

Why should you become a Patron?

6G Wireless Summit is the place where you can gain maximum exposure in the market of telecommunications and related sectors, given the profile of the attendees, ranging from large industrial companies to SMEs, and including academia and research centres. By contributing to this conference, you will be able to draw the attention of key players in this field from all round the world.

3 Events in 3 Days

- ▶ IEEE FUTURE NETWORKS TUTORIALS
(Sunday March 24)
- ▶ IEEE 5G SUMMIT
(Monday March 25)
- ▶ The First 6G WIRELESS SUMMIT
(Tuesday March 26)

The program will feature a number of invited high-profile speakers, technical sessions through open call, poster sessions, as well as a panel session. We solicit short position papers (2 pages) on beyond 5G visions, challenges, requirements and candidate technologies as well as future ecosystems and value chains. We invite beyond 5G and 6G initiatives from all around the world to present their targets and visions. A closed doors session, per invitation only, will be arranged after the Summit on Wednesday to draft a joint vision towards 6G. Levi Summit Conference and Exhibition Centre and Hotel Levi Panorama on the top of the Levi Mountain provide a first class setting to the 6G Wireless Summit.
